

Third Day "Follow Me There"

Visit "Follow Me There" on MotoLyrics.com

Whoa, oh yeah

You need a place where you can find some shelter Follow me there, follow me there You want a hand to hold, someone to help you Follow me there, come on, follow me there

Where love like a river flows, peace like you've never known
And joy never ending lives
And a place where faith can find, hope that will never die

You need a place to be your sanctuary
Where you can lay down all those burdens you carry

Where love like a river flows, peace like you've never
known
And joy never ending lives
And a place where faith can find, hope that will never

Where the lost can find salvation
And the lonely finds a friend
Where the sinner finds forgiveness Won't you follow me there? Won't you follow me there?

Where love like a river flows, peace like you've never
And joy never ending lives
And a place where faith can find, hope that will never
Won't you follow me there? Yeah, follow me there

Whoa, oh, oh yeah, yeah, yeah, follow me there Won't you follow, come on now, follow me Come on and follow me, yeah, won't you follow me there?

When I'll leave you, oh, will you follow me?
Come on now, follow me there, come on now, follow me there
