Sorry, I had to go away
Tomorrow's just another day
Without you here, I'll have to say

How's your head? I'm so sorry
That I can't do anything about it
Like I said, I'll be praying
Here without you I feel helpless

Sorry, I had to go away
Tomorrow's just another day
Without you here, I'll have to say
Hold on to love

How's your day? Do you miss me?
Right now, I've only a minute
I called to say, well, I'm so sorry
And once again I feel helpless

Sorry, I had to go away
Tomorrow's just another day
Without you here, I'll have to say
Hold on to love, hold on to love

God forbid, we'd be apart
How close or shall I ask how far
Are we until the demise
Of this helplessness

Sorry, I had to go away
Tomorrow's just another day
Without you here, I'll have to say

Sorry, I had to go away
Tomorrow's just another day
Without you here, I'll have to say
Hold on to love, hold on to love
Hold on to love, yeah
