

Third Day "I Can Feel It"

Visit "I Can Feel It" on MotoLyrics.com

Well I seek the silence through the chaos and the noise
That's when I'm listening, I want to hear Your voice
Sometimes it softly speaks a whisper on the wind
Sometimes it's louder when Your spirit rushes in

I can feel it all around me
I can feel it all around me

Well I keep on searching for Your presence in this place
Well I see Your hand at work, I feel Your touch of grace
Sometimes it falls like rain upon this thirsty land
Sometimes You gently stir the heart of every man

I can feel it all around me
I can feel it all around me

I can feel it, I can feel it
I can feel Your heartbeat
I can feel it, I can feel it
I can feel Your heartbeat

Well I pray You'd send Your presence down
Send it down and fill us with Your Spirit now

I can feel it all around me
I can feel it all around me

I can feel it, I can feel it
I can feel Your heartbeat
I can feel it, I can feel it
I can feel Your heartbeat
