

Third Day "Keep On Shinin'"

Visit "Keep On Shinin'" on MotoLyrics.com

It feels like forever since I can remember
It seems like it's always been this way
Keep the good news to ourselves, a secret we'll never tell
Don't know why we've been so ashamed

But changes are in the air, sparks are starting everywhere
And oh, what a sweet, sweet sound
With millions of voices, singing new choruses
Leading the way to higher ground

Keep on, keep on shinin'
Wherever you may be
Keep on, keep on shinin'
For all the world to see

Having faith in the long run is easier said than done
It's hard to live out in the light of day
You're bruised and you're battered
Your dreams have been shattered
Best laid plans scattered over the place

Despite all your tendencies, God sees it differently
Your struggle's a time to grow
And you, you're a miracle, anything but typical It's time for the whole wide world to know

Keep on, keep on shinin'
Wherever you may be
Keep on, keep on shinin'
For all the world to see

All the world can see you
Everyone can see you
Everyone can see you

Keep on, keep on shinin'
Wherever you may be
Keep on, keep on shinin'
For all the world to see

Keep on, keep on, keep on shinin'
Wherever you may be
Keep on, keep on shinin'
For all the world to see

And all the world can see you
And everyone can see you
And everyone can see
