It's time to change your ways

How good and how pleasant it is for I and I to dwell as one (yen)
Join hands and hearts together and make us strong
No matter what they say no matter what they do
(Chorus)

Let's sing of itesfull oneness (yea)
And give yourself that full respect
'Cause you've got your life to live yea
And so much, so much, so much love to give

So spread your little joy around the world
And let the children run come 'round

Giving them the message of JAH love
With the rhythm of the positive y'all
