

Third World "Rock Me"

Stay with me please, for a while
So we can watch the morning sunrise
Stay with me please, for a while, so we can Catch the rays exploding as they open our eyes

Rock me like the ocean breeze, so tender
Rock me to the rhythm of love we surrender
Rock me, hotter than the midday sun in Sahara
Rock me, stronger, I won't slip away, oh yes, I'll stay
longer

Stay with me please, for a while and as we Float away the star beams calling us to fly

Rock me like the ocean breeze, so tender
Rock me to the rhythm of love we surrender
Rock me, hotter than the midday sun in Sahara
Rock me, stronger, I won't slip away, oh yes, I'll stay
longer

Stay with me please for a while, so we can
Capture memories that's gonna last forever
Stay with me, for a while and we'll exchange a smile
Whenever we remember how you rock me

Rock me like the ocean breeze, so tender
Rock me to the rhythm of love we surrender
Rock me, hotter than the midday sun in Sahara
Rock me, stronger, I won't slip away, oh yes, I'll stay
longer
