Why spend time brewing up stormy weather
Making tear drops remind me of gray skies
Why should today's dreams be tomorrow's heartache
Let's make summer days 365 and if it's in my power long as I'm alive

Oh, you'll never see me standing in the rain
Oh, you'll never see me standing in the rain
Oh, you'll never see me standing in the rain
Take me where the music playing

Fair to fine, that's how I'm feeling I kept on hoping I'd see a brighter day
Well wishing friends they forecast storm warning
Rough running up ahead is what they say
But the road I'm taking it don't lead that way

Oh, you'll never see me standing in the rain
Oh, you'll never see me standing in the rain
