Lately I hear you calling Debating whether you are falling This love won't benefit you but it's good for me Religion is what you believe to save you from what you achieve This blood was shed and it washes your conscience clean

chorus:

But you give the most incredible feeling I don't mind taking your troubles away you will find me flying far from the real world waiting again for you to tell me I'm not dreaming

Paranoid there's somebody coming to take me did you hear something?
it's hard to forget about you when youre haunting me

(chorus)

but I'm praying for you it fills me up when you get what you want all these truths and decisions seem natural cause it's out of my control

(chorus)
