Two in the morning and it's safe to say Ten thousand soldiers couldn't make you stay Well heaven's got the angels and I've met a few They'll be rejoicing and I'll still be missing you chorus:

No, I won't let go out on your road so violently but I still believe time passes slow
just let her be just let her go

Pirates and treasure both need to find the path to each other and leave it behind
so princess I'll see you somewhere inside
this is the last time
and you look so beautiful

chorus x2
