"Wanderful"

Far off in the distance your lighthouse shines forth
Those who are apporaching your cold, rocky shore Somewhere in the gardens I'm hanging on Right outside your babylon

Chorus:

Around the world seven wonders I've wandered Through this selfish fantasy
Searching for you
Buildings will crumble and statues will fall but I still find it wonderful selfish and all

Out here in the desert I slave away
Building what will be forgotten one day
In this mausoleum I will reside
Trading life for suicide

Chorus x2
