No sugar coming my way
It's your way on the highway
No loving in the daylight
No rubbing in the dark night
I just want some affection
In my direction
I don't care what the people say
No sugar coming my way

I met a girl with beautiful blonde hair
Two words - dont care
Cos all im thinkin bout is what i just lost small price, big cost

Whats it gunna be for a guy like me
When everything is over
Why do i get out of bed at all
When I get back in later

No sugar coming my way
It's your way on the highway
No loving in the daylight
No rubbing in the dark night
I just want some affection
In my direction
I don't care what the people say
No sugar coming my way

You said that you needed some space
Well our love - erased
I never thought i'd be feeling so bad
Past tense, I have

Whats it gunna be for a guy like me
With this around the corner
Just keep this clear in your mind baby
Your somebody's daughter

No sugar coming my way
It's your way on the highway
No loving in the daylight

No rubbing in the dark night
I just want some affection
In my direction
I don't care what the people say
No sugar coming my way

No sugar coming my way
It's your way on the highway
No loving in the daylight
No rubbing in the dark night
I just want some affection
In my direction
I don't care what the people say
No sugar coming my way

I don't care what the people say
No sugar coming my way
