He wanted to steal her
away, spend the hours
blissful

Old echoes, betrayal
he says he can't help
how he feels

He ought to, he ought to confront it in it's guise a vision of summer
the fire's gone from my eyes

Kill them with a smile
how could a friend be so unkind?
awkward thing to invite longing

It's simple, the settling it subsides
I thought I once held you while you cried
the little things
I try to hide
the pain
makes me feel alive

how could a friend be so unkind?

Rest in me, rest in me
a kind of sanctity
wanting three things
tumbling through your mind
a deliverance
where no words are needed cares denied
