I'm just a little beggar girl and Sally is my name
You can call me a skiver and I'll call you the same
You can show me you're sorry if you think it's a shame
That I'm only a poor little beggar girl
Yes I'm only a poor little beggar girl
You can show me you're sorry if you think it's a shame
That I'm only a poor little beggar girl
I'll dance with my peg leg a-wiggling at the knee
I'll play on the accordion my father gave to me
For it's well worth it all to please a gent such as thee
For I'm only a poor little beggar girl
Yes I'm only a poor little beggar girl
And it's well worth it all to please a gent such as thee
For I'm only a poor little beggar girl
I've been down to London, I've been up to Crewe
I travel far and wide to do the work that I do
'Cause I love taking money off a snob like you
For I'm only a poor little beggar girl
Yes I'm only a poor little beggar girl
And I love taking money off a snob like you
For I'm only a poor little beggar girl

Oh the poor they will be rich and the rich they will be poor

That's according to Saul when he wrote down the law

And I'd much rather be rich after than before

For I'm only a poor little beggar girl

Yes I'm only a poor little beggar girl

And I'd much rather be rich after than before

For I'm only a poor little beggar girl

If the words of my song do your conscience alarm

Just remember generosity is like a lucky charm

If you give me your money, it'll do you no harm

For I'm only a poor little beggar girl

Yes I'm only a poor little beggar girl

If you give me your money, it'll do you no harm

For I'm only a poor little beggar girl
