it don't sound so bad don't mean that you can't understand i want to be close to you so what's that sound the floor boards are cracking up as i creep round your home in places i should've known find me wandering the streets again it's time that you knew it's time that we both knew i'm seeking tou out trying not to shout

a fly on the wall dreams of flowers and phone calls when will i win

lost alone wandering the streets again i'm right back where i started out again find me wandering

another day fades away
