I must admit life don't always go
The way you'd like
Stuck in a never ending circle
But it all comes back to you
So remember to look at the bright side to.
Even if I don't care for you
I must admit it could be worse
You could have been my first
Wake up and look at the bright side
Could be worse could be stuck with you
Wake up and look at the bright side
It's such a lovely day out side
And just when I thought it couldn't get much worse
You ring and tell me you're coming round
I want to hide in a place I can't be found
It could be worse I could be dead
Just gotta look positive
Look at the bright side
Look at the bright side of life
