Cold hearted person, never wants to listen
To any problems but his own
Not a rare sight these days I'm afraid to say
But who is anyone to judge these days
One for all and all for me
Existing, not living

Give everyone a break
You're driving every single one of us stir crazy
You never take the time to ever question why
You're so fucking lazy
One for all and all for me
Existing, not living

A twisted man, a bitter man
Living self indulgence will you come undone?
A twisted man, a bitter man
Existing, not living

One, one for all and all for me
You can't say it's the way
Every person should be
One, one for all and all for me
That's the person I knew
Where do you come undone?

One for all and all for me
You can't say it's the way
Every person should be
One for all and all for me
One for all and all for me
