Do you think that we'll ever just be more than just friends
And get to hold more than just each others hands
And you know your close to me
Be sooner that you see.
I can't help myself I politely replied
I say your name, and fall out the picture
When you go now, you know I'll miss you
When you go now, you know I'll miss you
Some people say I stick to you
I am the human superglue
And when you're not there
I will be coming for you.
I can't help myself I politely replied
I say your name, and fall out the picture
When you go now, you know I'll miss you
When you go now, you know I'll miss you
GO..
