Hello out there!

We're about ready to begin our program

[L'Ron]

Yeah..

This is dedicated to those who view hip hop as a voyage

And on those voyagers we take you there

* the DJ cuts Guru saying "In this business I witness trickiness" *

First chapter a little wooden vessel set afloat with few passengers rhythms flatten the sail for a voyage where they wail thoughts yell thoughts Plotted over party grooves, but soon the party kinda grew

And everybody kinda grew, when the money came through

So now the wooden vessel's gotta go

A yacht with outboard motor heave the hoe

To the show man more cats flows enough to buy The Love Boat

Luxury, but it puzzle me, how no one seemed to see the one's sneakin on -- the boat must be too big

Fakes movin in to mix and mingle with the voyagers

Ahoy it's land ho, the voyage comes to end

But more sneakin in, so castaway the stowaways

* the DJ cuts Guru saying "In this business, I witness
trickiness" *

"Some MC's are into stickiness
