Closer, but so far away
We play hide and seek to see what it means
And to hide our pain

Laughter, used to fill our days
But instead we hide and disregard our lives
Just to find our place

And we'll hide our feelings, watch them slip away
Stick around you'll notice jaded walls disintegrate

So follow, what your heart shows
And if you don't it'll let you know
Over and over and over and over again

And we'll hide our feelings, watch them slip away
Stick around you'll notice jaded walls disintegrate

Closer, but so far away
We play hide and seek to see what it means
And to hide our pain

And we'll hide our feelings, watch them slip away
Stick around you'll notice, yeah you'll notice
Jaded walls disintegrate

Oooo-oo-ooaahh
Ohhh aa-aa-aa
Ohhh oh-ah ah ah
Ohh oh oh-ah ah-oh oh
