I look in a crowd, and suddenly I see
A beautiful light that beams over me
It's you my love
Please stay for a while, I don't want to see you leave
Can't you see that I'm falling for you?
It's you my love

You can be the answer for me
You can be all that I see, my love
You can be my sun and my earth
You can make me smile when I hurt
My love

*Oh my love, can't you see my love
Oh my love, can't you see my love

This room is getting smaller, how could this really be Just dreaming you here, I see us so clearly
It's you my love
Please stay for a while, I don't want to see you leave
Can't you see that I'm falling for you?
It's you my love

You can be the answer for me
You can be all that I see my love
You can be my sun and my earth
You can make me smile when I hurt
My love

*Oh my love, can't you see my love
Oh my love, can't you see my love

It's hard enough these days
I'll wait for you
We'll always be true
My love

(Solo)

*Oh my love, can't you see my love
Oh my love, can't you see my love

Oh my love, can't you see my love
Oh my love, can't you see my love
