Cut it
Oh well
This never goes according to the plan
But does it feel so wrong
This shouldn't take too long

Well, well did you mean it
When you said that this is your Ticket out of,
This town maybe for a while

You should have it better
It's harder shaking off the past
It's harder running from the future
You could have it better
It's harder knowing when to start

Cover
It up
This didn't seem so obvious before
But I can't act surprised
Unless we improvise
I have a favor to ask
I know this isn't mutual at all
But can you tie loose ends
So we stop this trend

Well, well did you stand out
It appeared that everybody took those
Shots at you cause
You were open to attack

You should have it better
It's harder shaking off the past
It's harder running from the future
You could have it better
And yet you're failing to impress

You should have it better
You should have it better

You should have it better
It's harder shaking off the past
It's harder running from the future
You could have it better
It's harder knowing where to start
It's harder knowing when to stop
You should have it better
You could have it better
I'm thinking this is where we stop
