

This Day Forward "Arise"

Visit "Arise" on MotoLyrics.com from this day forward i must strive to begin to see what has caused all of this hatred and suffering liberation is the key to my destiny my mind is set from this day forward have to take control time is running out have to face my fears have to live my life time is running out this day forward i will arise this day forward i will survive it's time for self improvement morality will be restored i stand upon this rock of confidence a pure foundation reach to the sky beyond these walls of hatred reach to the sky beyond
