Pretend that it's over now, awaken to sleep, the stars at your feet, you're somewhere up there, floating around, projection, a linear transformation, a soul mapping, there's a cloud that's stopping the stare of the sun, maybe that's where you are.
Save me a spot next to you, we'll steal the sunshine, there's no compensation, we'll keep it for ourselves, you're the silent assassin, a joint suicide?
If so, save me a spot next to you in the sky, your scars deepen twice, one knife, two lives, you are the ghost by my side.
