Hey, yeah

Life,
Is nothing but a miracle
To me it's something mystical
That feeling in your heart
'Cause I,
I know when you think love is gone
Then suddenly you are the one
To feel it in your heart

Although my hope was gone
I found a way to move on
And now I am stronger
I'm back on my feet again

When love's comin' back again
When life turns around and then
You think it's from heaven sent
You know love is back again
When love's coming over you
There's nothing for you to do
There's no greater feeling than
When love's comin' back again
When love's comin' back again

Life,
Sometimes it's so mysterious
You never know just what it does
But something's in your heart
And then you are stronger
You're back on your feet again

When love's comin' back again
When life turns around and then
You think it's from heaven sent
You know love is back again
When love's coming over you
There's nothing for you to do
There's no greater feeling than
When love's comin' back again

When love's comin' back again
