I remember the wind blowing in your face
How our hearts would beat at the same pace
Holding hands and breathing slow
Smiling and pretending not to know

I remember the sun shining on my face
When I saw that smile my heart would race
It was a dream from which I couldn't wake
Until the day I felt my heart break

We were young and so in love
I fell so deep there was no way back up
When you took and broke my heart
I found myself right back at the start

I remember riding around in your car
You made me feel like a movie star
Glitter so shiny you kind of had to squint
I swear you held a sign that said dreams for rent

I fell hook line and sinker for those silly lines
I've had to ask myself a hundred million times
Was the dream worth the price that I paid
The answer's always the same I'm afraid

We were young and so in love
When I fell it took some time to get back up
But I was yours and baby you were mine
And I'd do it the same if I could turn back time

I remember riding around in your car
You made me feel like a movie star
Glitter so shiny you kind of had to squint
I swear you held a sign that said dreams for rent

We were young and so in love
When I fell it took some time to get back up
But I was yours and baby you were mine
And I'd do it the same if I could turn back time

I was young and so in love

You hurt me bad but baby I got back up
So thanks for the love, thank for the time
I'll always remember your pretty sign
