Well my guy walked out just last week.
And oh I thought he was so sweet,
and the best that I could get.
I knew I'd die the night he left.

But I'm back on my feet
with gorgeous guys just a followin' me.
I thought I'd found heaven in him.
But girl, look what just walked in.
Oh here we go again.

I figured there was no one left.
That I never would find happiness.
But seein' him has changed my mind.
Cause look at him, he's just so fine.
Look at those eyes; clear blue like a summer sky.
Oh yeah, I think I've found the guy that makes the world go 'round.

Oh, here we go again
