Intro:

I Do....

They make me....

I do both Jay and Jane

They make me feel, They make me feel

I call Jay, sometimes I need a man

I do both Jay and Jane

Verse:

I met a boy his name was Jay and he was so fine

I met a girl her name was Jane and she wanted to be mine

I met a boy his name was Jay he was the one

I met a girl her name was Jane she wanted to have fun

He had a vision of things that I needed

She understood how a woman should be treated

Got a decision which one I should choose

When it comes to Jay and Jane there is just no way to lose

Chorus:

They make me feel, They make me feel the same

There is no shame to my game

I do both Jay and Jane

I do both Jay and Jane

They make me feel the same

There is no shame to my game

Verse:

Jane is sweet as honey, the taste I'm teasin

She knows how to hit the spot, her touch is pleasing

He knows how to make me hot, his heat is healing babe

He is a special man, long, rough, and rugged

She is a diamond that shines like a nugget

I've got to have them both, you just don't understand

Sometimes I call on Jane, sometimes I need a man
