Baby I've got a habit
A habit that I can't break, yea
Honey I'm hooked on this feeling for you
I've got a Jones that I can't shake Since I tasted your loving Your love is all I crave, yea
You're just like a drug running through my vein
Your'e gonna carry me to my grave
Hey baby, I'm a love addict
I'm a stone junkie for your love
Hey baby, I'm a love addict
I'm a stone junkie for your love, ooh yea yea
I've found with any other habit
The feeling would go away, yea
But everytime I get a fix on you
It lasts twenty-four hours a day
Ooh honey, when you come near me, you see
I even get a contact high, yea
But Lord knows, I don't want no cure
I'll be a junkie til the day I die Hey, baby, I'm a love addict, I'm a stone junkie for your love
Hey, baby, I'm a love addict, I'm a stone junkie for your
love
Hey, hey baby, I need you hoeny, can't you see, I can't live without you
Hey baby, I got to have you, baby I got to have you, hey
