(So long to the days and nights we spend all alone.)
T-t-turn around and we'll go back to this day
But you'll stay and say this conflict wasn't anything at all.

'Cause everything meant everything to me
And now you left me with nothing to say.

My friends mean more than you could.
Take my life you so would.

You always win and never lose.

Let's rave,
Patience, wait for it.
Save me from this life.

Please don't come around I swear to god I won't have missed you.
Your eyes are cheating but your lies to me are so intriguing.

I was wrong to think that we were right.
When everything we had, caught us by surprise.

Patience, wait for it.
Save me from this life.

How ungrateful you must be,
You wouldn't stand a chance,
Take what you want and don't get back.
I bet you would, you wish you could.

Waiting for a sign from God...
Patience, wait for it.

Save me from this life.

I was wrong to think that we were right.

When everything we had, caught us by surprise

I, I really thought that this would work
