Take a look at me,
I look into your eyes,
Take a look you'll see,
I'm looking right through you,
I can read your lies,
They're drifting in your breath,
It gives me the chills.
I'm blind with the effects of your beauty and perfect
fake smile,
Your smooth lips mouthing every word, like a perfect
crime,
It's funny how you're not worth my time,
You're worthless like a dime,
A cover of a book I've already read.

I'll shut you down, you're not worth it(x3)
I'll shut you down.

There's trust and too much control (and you've got) the worst of both worlds
It's bros before hoes so don't lie bitch when you know
you've been caught.
(You're getting caught before you get dropped, and I'm heading out)
Are you out there, this is so unfair, are you out there

It's kind of crazy knowing you're the only one that's the same,
Burning bridges is the way to get off playing your game
Now I'm sorry for the reason you have to believe,
I just imagined that we could run away and let go.
(Way away from here I'll go)
It's getting out of hand,
Don't like the change of plans, we let go
(Way away from here I'll go)
It's getting out of hand,
Don't like the change of plans, we let go,

Don't like the change of plans, it's getting out of hand,
we let go, let go(x4)

So leave your bags at home, your not welcome(x2)

There's trust and too much control (and you've got) the
worst of both worlds

It's bros before hoes so don't lie bitch when you know
you've been caught.

(You're getting caught before you get dropped, and I'm heading out)

Let go.

I'll shut you down.

You're coming around to what you saw, you never thought that I would walk,

I'll shut you down. (I'll shut you down)

You're getting away with what you got, forget the change and all you've brought,

I'll shut you down. (I'll shut you down)

Soon the end will be too close, and when it comes, I'll give a toast,

I'll shut you down. (I'll shut you down) (x2)

I've read about you on bathroom doors, I never knew you were a whore,

I'll shut you down. (I'll shut you down) (2x)

There's trust and too much control (and you've got) the
worst of both worlds

It's bros before hoes so don't lie bitch when you know
you've been caught.

(You're getting caught before you get dropped, and I'm heading out)

Let go

It's getting out of hand,

Don't like the change of plans, we let go

(Way away from here I'll go),

It's getting out of hand,

Don't like the change of plans, we let go
