It's 12 am
This moment breaks my heart and so i stitch my lips from lip to lip so i can keep from you there's not enough time not enough to find the cure, there is no cure i know that she's not an option

i swear there's no emotion i swear you've got the last shot
i know she is not an option

your blood is thin the aspirin's just setting in and you can't feel, and you can't feel, and you can't there is no cure for the fact i care i know she's not an option

i swear you've got the last shot

i swear you've got the last shot
