Visit "Seconds" on MotoLyrics.com

Words, they don't count for much
I wish I had enough
To let them burn at stake
Now, honestly we're through
I am done
You're all killing us tonight

You, you're just killing us tonight
Afraid to shut my eyes
To wake and find no one
Grasping echoes now, you're gone
Please just come undone

Now, not much left to do
Silence breaking through
I'm climbing up for light

Words, they don't count for much
I'm pounding - Barred up and locked doors
Stay outside tonight

You, you're just killing us tonight
Afraid to shut my eyes
To wake and find no one
Grasping echoes now, you're gone
Please just come undone
