Walked behind you through darkness, darkness
Came as far as we could
Now all signs lost, signs lost
Nothing more to see
I'll wait here weakened
A moment you've been waiting for
Head for the throat this is war

Dance through darkness with you
Wishing that this wasn't true
Encircled, we're through
I'm not here waiting for you

In a minute I'll be gone, be gone
Faced your hands with my eyes shut, eyes shut
Cut through history
Come stab it weakened
I'll be the one you've waited for
Head for the throat this is war

Dance through darkness with you
Wishing that this wasn't true
Encircled, we're through
I'm not here waiting for you

I'm not here waiting for you
I'm not here, this isn't true
I'm not here waiting for you
