everyone4s my enemy
i hate what4s standing in my way this is my declaration of war don4t need noone by my side hate inside of me rows you can4t betray me, no way i don4t need your sympathy i spit on you, when you die i spit into the liar4s eye

this means war

i have lost my faith in love hypocrisy, betrayal and lies my heart4s ripped out, turned to stone i attack you without warning you can4t control my rae can4t satisfy my needs i4ll show no mercy at all
