Independent girl
Independent girl

A limousine in the night
Drives away out of sight
The girl inside stole my pride
Run away with my whole life

Don't expect she turn around
Think about what she left behind
It is time to know what is going on
She turned my world around

She is the one, she is the girl
Who left me in this misery
Stole my pride, stole my life
Leaving me in mystery

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
And every time she goes, she'll cast me in her
spell
Independent girl living in her world
You never know her well, my love for her is blind

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
And every time she goes she'll cast me in her
spell
Independent girl living in her world
You never know her well, my love for her is blind

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
An independent girl

Dig him out, she feels no shame
Love to her is just a game
'Cause of her I feel I've changed
Fear the day of her return

Calls my name, place the game
Way ahead of time, stole my pride
Kills my life, leaving me in mystery

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
And every time she goes sheÃ¢â¬Âll cast me in her
Independent girl living in her world
You never know her well, my love for her is blind

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
And every time she goes sheÃ¢â¬Âll cast me in her
Independent girl living in her world
You never know her well, my love for her is blind

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
An independent girl
You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
An independent girl

She is the one, she is the girl
Who left me in this misery
Stole my pride, stole my life
Leaving me in mystery

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
And every time she goes sheÃ¢â¬Âll cast me in her
Independent girl living in her world
You never know her well, my love for her is blind

You are my independent girl, you tried to ruin my world
And every time she goes sheÃ¢â¬Âll cast me in her
Independent girl living in her world
You never know her well, my love for her is blind
You are my independent girl
