I was lost and I was taken
All my faith in love was shaken
Hopeless til the day
That I found you

Forever and a day I waited
Hope was gone and love was faded
But now I know let
That you will see me through

Everything that hurt me
Ever made me cry it
All my yesterdays
You let it die
Rising from the ashes die
Once again I fly
Shadows deep inside me
You let it die

Thank you for my resurrection
Healing me with youre affection
Bringing back light
To my wounded eyes

Waking up the morning after
I was drowning in my laughter
Never thought of
Such a sweet surprise

Everything that hurt me
Ever made me cry
All my yesterdays
You let it die
Rising from the ashes
Once again I fly
Shadows deep inside me
You let it die
