[Sticky Fingaz - Talking]

I think one right here...

Is long over due

All ya'll

All ya'll

[Sticky Fingaz]

To all my sisters all across the world

I applaud you

I know can't nothing can't erase the pain we caused you

I'm sorry sister for all the times we used you

Hurt you, beat you up, bad and abused you

Raped you, took your womanhood, violated you

Betrayed you, you women, we supposed to praise you

Instead we called you hoes and bitches and dissed you

I was thinking "Damn, what if that was my mother or my sister?"

You never feel it, till it hits home

We abandoned you, left you all alone

With our babies in your hour of need

Left you all by yourself to raise our seed

And all the times we made you go wild in court

And had to fight us just to get child support

There is only a handful of us that handle our responsibility

I'm from a broken home; know this shit is killing me

How a man can make a woman a mother and a father

If men got it hard, then women got it harder

And I represent every man on earth when I say this:

Sister I'm sorry and I pray for your forgiveness

[Chorus- Choclatt]

Sister I'm sorry

For all the wrong I've done

Sister I'm sorry

I'm telling everyone

Sister I'm sorry

Nothing can change the past

Sister I'm sorry

Your forgiveness is all I ask

[Sticky Fingaz]

I broke a promise, cheated on you, lied to you
I ain't recognize the goddess that is the side of you
I know sorry ain't do it but my acts of faith
Made me overstay, hope it's not to late
But I don't understand is how we could hit our girl
And how we can bring a bastard kid in this world
I don't want my child being ashamed of me Like "Mommy, where's daddy?" Wonder what became of me
Swear to life I don't know how ya'll made it all these years
Can't even look you in your eyes without mine filling with tears
You my sister, I respect and love you
You woman, men came from you
And he came from she
All men ain't the man that they claim to be Sister I'm sorry, swear to god, please forgive me

[Chorus]

[Choclatt]

Sister, I'm so sorry
Please forgive me

[Chorus] x2

I'm so sorry
I'm so sorry for hurting you
For mistreating you
For not loving you
I'm so sorry
