May the Cube be with you (Always) May the Cube be with you, ever after (Ever after) Late one night a happy Martian with nothing to do made the perfect pleasure drug and he called it the Cube
A cube so potent in a stroke it turned nightmares to dreams
He flew right past the planet earth and he gave it to me Then he said, "May the Cube be with you and your father
May the Cube be with you, ever after"
You might care to spend an evening with Marilyn Monroe
Share a cell with Jimmy Cagney or Paris with Brando Drop some bombs on Maggie Thatcher or Ronnie Reagan
You see Cube Power comes by the hour so why not have fun?
Right here
May the Cube be with you (May the Cube be with you) and your father (And your father too) May the Cube be with you (Well, well, well), ever after"

May the Cube be with you (Always) and your father
(And your father too)
May the Cube be with you (Well, well, well, may the Cube be with you), ever after Half a million people, such a sight to see, lying in the sunshine in a private fantasy
But you got to have more, you won't stop till you get it all
I would give it to you baby, the law is catching up with me
Pending my interrogation and stuck for an excuse
I thought up two more variations on pastry abuse
I'm so very sorry constable, what can I do When half the Western world is turning on to Dolby's Cube?
If I say, may the Cube be with you (Always) and your father
May the Cube be with you (Yeah may the Cube be with you (Always)), ever after May the Cube be with you (I don't think I'm happy) and your father

May the Cube be with you (Always)), ever after (Well, let the Cube be with you) May the Cube be with you (Say) and your father May the Cube be with you (Say, may the Cube be with you), ever after (Ever after) May the Cube be with you ((Always) May the Cube be with you)
May the Cube be with you
Go buy and buy, go by and buy, go buy and by, go buy
Go buy and buy, go by and buy, go buy and by, go buy

Stay at home, making faces
Two can play at that game, take it places (They did) Tokyo, but they like it there, inner London (Always),
Paris, D.C., Red Square
May the Cube be with you (Always) and your father
May the Cube be with you (Say, may the Cube be with you), ever after
May the Cube be with you (Always) and your father
