Memories of things that never happened these are always the hardest to forget all the old friends and the loved ones these are the people you haven't even met looking forward into the old days looking back at what there will be there's no reality it's just an illusion there's no real sanity just plain confusion how do you feel?

well I don't know just how I feel all I know that I love you girl (what is real) it's so real, so real, surreal here we go there is no single circumstance I never took a final chance

I made it something that you can see and touch forever I always looked the same from every angle and never cast a shadow that would change the way you thought about your very being that what what you were seeing would always be would always be would always be the truth

how do you feel?
all I know that I love you girl (what is real)
it's so real, so real, surreal ooh it's so real, so real, surreal oh all right ahhh!

"We have a tradition of whimsy here at Zevo toys.
Dad began that tradition with Milton the Friendly Elephant and it carries all the way through the new line."

I made myself a thing that you could see and touch forever you always looked the same from every angle and never cast a shadow that would change the way I felt about about your very
that what what you say would always be would always be

how do you feel?
all I know that I love you girl it's so real, so real, surreal all the seasons I have spoken all the reasons I have rhymed for the state of incandescence just imagine what is real simply then the words were spoken

what is real
what is real
