i can feel a mountain rain
that'll wash away
and shine again
empty my pockets
that were weighing me down sift through my soul
to see what's lost and found gonna walk away from trouble
with my head held high
then look closely you'll see
luck in my eyes

i can hear a howling wind
that sweeps away
the pain that's been
take all my sorrow
and i'll cast away
the worries tomorrow
that i had today
gonna walk away from trouble
luck in my eyes

all my troubles, all my troubles, gone with luck in my eyes
all my worry's all my worry's, gone
