"Bury War"

This is the end of the night now
You're heading for another day
You don't have to worry see with the eyes of a child now
Locked in silence, sleep your dreams
Thousand words without a meaning
Thousand tears for no reason
Shine on, shine on, shine on for me

Now and forever, can we walk out of the shadow
Oh, and Bury War
With you, Angel of mercy, diving into that warm light
But this time Babe, we Bury War,
We want to Bury War

You will see the sun for another day and you will live and love again
I know that I was wrong so many times
I know that I didn't care
But shine on, shine on for me.
And sometimes the door may be open wide
But we ain't got the eyes to see
I apologize but what a difference does it make
If we don't change it'll always be the same

Now and forever, we can walk out of the shadow
Oh, and Bury War
With you, Angel of mercy, diving into the warm light
But this time we Bury War, we Bury War

Now and forever can we walk out of the shadow
Listen to me and Bury War
With you, Angel of mercy, diving into that warm light
But this time we Bury War, we Bury War
