pale green eyes
silver and lime
in a world gone bad
your soul will shine (young and wise
they stare in mine
the love you left
will fade in time)

baby I'm all messed up I swear I really do want you here my dear

bear an endless tale
not afraid to try
not afraid to fail

a thousand miles
lie in your trail
in passing time
you will prevail

baby I'm all messed up I swear

will I ever find
a way to cross
that great divide
left me behind
you will be fine
