Oh, here in this strange and eerie place And we're holdi'n on and hope's only trace we rise in shame

we're high on blame

They label me; insane
I would'nt play their game
and if easy eyes go blind in fear of what they'll find mmm

And we rise in shame
And way to far, to ever turn back you are so bold, ever illiutionary track
and we rise in shame
we're high on blame

They label me; insane
I would'nt play their game

ooo
