another weakness uncovered as another day slowly goes by on and on we are only getting older so fill your lungs up one last time and the rain falls down and the sunlight cannot be found no one believed that you would carry on living in the shadow of a shadow no one but me can see into these eyes of stone and all along you were all alone

all my life-
ive waited for some to tear me down and build me up again
all my life-
ive waited for someone who turns to go in the end
with no goodbye

you are what I wanted to see you are what I needed to be you are all I wanted but I wont come out, you cant come in youve put me in the place Im in Ill never breathe again
