Come on down take a bow
Youve had to deal enough tonight
To this stage single light
Shining brighter than anything

You called to me you cannot speak
Your mother has it in control
And though its only hours later
It feels so long ago

Come back to me
Im doing okay
At least thats what I tell myself today

And this day shining bright
Close your eyes and then its night
If this were another world
Youd still be daddys little girl

You hold his name strong, composed
But your eyes say everything
On your face tears erode
Why cant God stop the rain?

Come back to me
Im doing okay
At least thats what I tell myself today

Im doing fine, just give me time
Im holding on to everything

Bridge:
And everything you wanted to say
You can hear at the wake
But maybe this prayer wont escape you
