Goodbye I hate to see you go
But have a good time
So long, I'll miss you, dear, I know
But have a good time

Have your fling, be gay with your new love
I'm setting you free
Dance and sing, pretend that it's true love
Don't worry bout me

I-I-I-I know that tears will only drive you
Farther away
Just go, forget that I'm alive
It's your holiday

When you're tired of being reckless and carefree
Remember that I'll be waiting to welcome you home
So have a good time

Sax continues behind SPOKEN: Bye, baby. Gee, I hate to see you go but have a good time.
So long

And, honey when you're tired of being reckless and carefree
Remember that I'll be waiting to welcome you home
So have a good time
