Dance with me before their frozen eyes

I'm so much in love

Like a ragged soldier catching butterflies

No man loved like I love you

Wouldn't you like to love me too

In the heat of the morning

In the shadow I'll clip your wings

And I'll tell you I love you

In the heat of the morning

I'll tie a knot in rainbow's end, challenge the trees

Light my candle from the sun

I'll give you daylight for a friend

I'll do all of these

I'll prove that it can be done

I'm so much in love

Like the little boy who races with the wind

No man loved like I love you

Wouldn't you like to love me too

In the heat of the morning

In the shadow I'll clip your wings

And I'll tell you I love you

In the heat of the morning

In the heat of the morning

In the shadow I'll clip your wings

And I'll tell you I love you

In the heat of the morning
