O'er shores of silence
Beyond the sands
Of time and hallowed ways
I now know the truth

O' impious ones of 'God'
Your ways are denial
For the fears of life
And the embrace of death

This world is of those that follow
The Mays of the past that are gone
There is no 'God' only the misery of life
This sorrow is all there will ever be

For me there is no happiness in this world
Only the pain of knowing my fate
To meet the black is to know defeat
For my memories are all I have
