In the morning when the sun makes it shadows my blood begins to rush In the morning when you ask me how I'm doing your love can make me blush

Tell me how to do this Tell me what to say
Show me how to spell it

Just tell me I'm okey for tomorrow
Alright for today
Yesterday was nothing
far far away
and I tried to see the future and I tried to see the past and I'd like to see the morning with you
with you

It's a blessing and a curse when your heart nearly bursts and your head is filled with wonders Your up and your down and your last thought will be the first to grow up to be the strongest

Tell me how to do this
Tell me what to say
Show me how to spell it

Just tell me I'm okey for tomorrow
Alright for today
far far away
and I tried to see the future
and I tried to see the past
and I'd like to see the morning

Okey for tomorrow
Alright for today

and I tried to see the future
and I tried to see the past
and I'd like to see the morning
with you
I'd like to see the morning with you
with you
