Tears on my sleeves writing letters that no one reads Don't know about you but I've been searching I've had my dreams but I don't know your kind

Tonight
I want to see you tonight
I want to be yours tonight
if you only had some time

I'm weak and weary
I don't think you know me well Can't stop what's coming I can't hide the lies I tell but I didn't know your kind

Tonight
I want to see you tonight
I want to be yours tonight
if you only had some time
